

Learning Mela

Students came from the University College London Bangla Society to talk to year 5 and 6 and their families about life at University. They all said that the thing that helped most was the support from their parents. Thank you to the students and to Mrs Hashinara Chowdhury and to Ambala sweets.

Netley Primary School
June 2008